

23240

Table microphone stand

---

Product variant

23240-300-56 - structured black

---

Technical Data

|                    |                                     |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Height             | 76.5 mm                             |
| Base dimensions    | 90 x 115 mm                         |
| Visibility         |                                     |
| Special features   | space saving flat foot construction |
| Price display      |                                     |
| Material           | steel                               |
| Type               | structured black                    |
| Threaded connector | 3/8"                                |

Stylish table microphone stand made of textured powder-coated steel, with 3/8" threaded connection. The flat, stable stand base enables comfortable and space-saving use. Four non-slip rubber feet reduce disturbing transmission noise to the microphone.