

19665

Flange adapter

Product variant

19665-000-55 - black

Technical Data

Visibility

|                                 |                                         |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| Suitable for tubing diameter of | 0.984"                                  |
| Function                        | to screw into speaker, to slip on stand |
| Installation depth              | 3.07"                                   |
| Bore holes                      | diameter 0.256" (4 x)                   |
| Type                            | black                                   |
| Flange                          | diameter 4.134"                         |
| Price display                   |                                         |
| Bolt Circle Diameter            | 3.15"                                   |
| Material                        | steel                                   |

Suitable for 21420 or stands with tubing diameter of 0.98".
Designed to be inserted and screwed onto speaker enclosures. Plastic-coated steel flange, diameter 4.13", depth 4.13".

